

Welcome

Welcome to the home page of A. S. Cutler & Associates.

Allan Cutler is the bureaucrat who blew the whistle on the Liberal Sponsorship Scandal. He can be reached at ascutler@ascutler.com. He is now the President of A. S. Cutler & Associates, a consulting and ethics business. Three main services are offered: Organizational Ethics and Whistleblowing – consultation, training and speaking. Firms of any size have ethical considerations that must be addressed. Larger firms often need assistance in understanding the ethical situations that can occur due to organization dynamics. Negotiation – consultation and training. We are often requested to become lead negotiators for firms that are inexperienced in the skill or to give advice and assistance on complex requirements. We also offer a course in Negotiation Strategies. Procurement – consultation and training. Large complex procurements are our specialty. We can offer help from initial receipt, through writing the proposal to evaluations.
